Guide for Canadian Educated Applicants

To work as a Medical Laboratory Technologist (MLT) in the province of Manitoba an individual is required to be registered with the College of Medical Laboratory Technologists of Manitoba (CMLTM).

The CMLTM was established in 2007 by the proclamation of The Medical Laboratory Technologists Act. This Act requires anyone with the intent to practice Medical Laboratory Technology in the Province of Manitoba to be registered with the CMLTM. MLTs must practice their profession in accordance with the CMLTM regulations, standards and meet the continuing competency requirements. This protects the public's right to safe, effective, ethical service from Medical Laboratory Technologists.
