

Nomination Letter – Elections 2023

Seeking MLTs to stand for election for the 2024-2026 Council term.

The CMLTM Nominating Committee is seeking Medical Laboratory Technologists to let their name stand for the 2024-2026 Council term election.

As the governing body of the College, the Council provides oversight to ensure the College meets its mandate to serve and protect the public interest. As a Council member you will direct the affairs of the College with an overall responsibility for governance, strategic planning, financial oversight, and risk management. Council members may also be asked to hold a position with one of the College's Committees.

More information about the Council's 2022-2026 Strategic Priorities can be found here.

More information about the Council's role and responsibilities can be found here.

More information about the Council nomination process can be found here.

To qualify for this volunteer position, you must be on the Active Practicing or Inactive Non-Practicing roster and in good standing with the CMLTM. The Nominating Committee encourages MLTs from diverse backgrounds and practice settings and from all parts of the province to consider letting their name stand. The College would also benefit from MLTs who have previous leadership, governance, or financial experience.

Council meetings are held no less than four times a year. Meetings may be held virtually or in person. Access to, and competence in the use of a device, the internet, and an email account is required. Council members attending meetings in person will be remunerated for all out-of-pocket expenses and for travel and accommodation when that is required. See the CMLTM policy here.

The Council meeting schedule can be found at the bottom of the CMLTM website Home Page.

If elected, your position as a CMLTM Council member will start immediately following the CMLTM Annual General Meeting on September 23, 2023.

If you are an MLT interested in regulatory and policy work and the public interest mandate of the College, we invite you to submit a PDF copy of the Council Nomination Form and your resume no later than 1600hrs on July 7th, 2023 to: janelle@cmltm.ca